

FINED IN JERSEY FOR SUNDAY BALL.

Court Upholds Law in Test Case
Made Before Criminal Court of Players Arrested.

The four men arrested last Sunday at the ball game between the Jersey City and Buffalo Clubs were found guilty to-day by Judge James D. Manning, in the Second District Criminal Court, in Jersey City, of violation of the Vice and Immorality Act. They are Eugene McCann, pitcher; George Vandergent, catcher; John J. McGee, first baseman; and Frank Carroll, umpire.

Judge Manning imposed a fine of one dollar on each of the defendants. It is understood the case will be appealed.
